Thanks Heriberto,
There is an article on SH Bell in the Tribune today written by Michael Hawthorn.

While investigating manganese pollution in yards of Southeast Side residents, EPA finds even worse problem: lead - Chicago Tribune

www.chicagotribune.com

The S.H. Bell Co. is at 10218 S. Avenue O, in Chicago. About 20,000 people, including 1,730 children age 5 and younger, live within a mile of S.H. Bell.

I sent the 20 SH Bell letters to the residents that are listed in the attached spread sheet. Can you give a call to the residents when you get in the office and let them know they are coming. Let us know if they have any questions or concerns.
